

Sensei oh Sensei

Sensei oh Sensei
You being mentor of my life
I could see where the
Buddhahood lies

Sensei when I am in trouble
Your guidance keeps me calm
And your spirit polishes me to shine

Sensei oh Sensei
You being mentor of my life
I could see where the
Buddhahood lies

Deep in my heart, Gohonzon is in me
And I am the messenger of the Buddha X2
I struggle to defeat, when devil challenges me
And I chant to be the Buddha

Sensei oh Sensei
You being mentor of my life
I could see where the
Buddhahood lies

Life is so interesting, there are always ups and downs
And I am the fighter in the revolution X2
When suffering only deepens and hope disappears
I could see the dawn after dark

Sensei oh Sensei
You being mentor of my life
I could see where the
Buddhahood lies

Sensei when I am in trouble
Your guidance keeps me calm
And your spirit polishes me to shine

Sensei oh Sensei
You being mentor of my life
I could see where the
Buddhahood lies
